From the Principal’s Desk

It was a beautiful spring day which marked the beginning of week 8 at Brunswick Heads Public School. Students enjoyed the gorgeous weather and the handball competitions added a buzz of excitement at both recess and lunch. On Tuesday Tiani and Max represented our school at the North Coast Athletics Carnival and we congratulate them on their fine efforts.

Our local pre-schoolers from Lillypilly Community Preschool, Brunswick Heads and Little Dolphins Early Learning Centre, Ocean Shores enjoyed a special bus ride with their teacher and I, to school on Wednesday for the second Kindergarten Orientation session. Miss Ponweiser had a range of exciting and engaging learning activities for the children to rotate around and our year 5 buddies did a wonderful job helping them at each station. We look forward to their return next week.

Our 5/6M class and Mrs Currie enjoyed a fantastic excursion to a local Macadamia Processing Plant, followed by a visit to Harvest, Newybar. This excursion came about as a result of the ‘Where does my food come from?’ unit of work they have currently been studying. Our students were the first school to be involved in such an excursion and Mrs Currie became a radio star when she was invited to share her story of our students’ involvement with the local radio station.

Have you heard about ‘Naming it?’ This week, as part of our PB4L our staff and students have been focusing on naming behaviours exhibited by others that make them feel worried or upset. For example, ‘Please stop Frank, I don’t like it when you take my hat. It makes me feel annoyed and I want you to stop.’ The ‘naming it’ strategy provides a framework to support all students to develop equal power in relationships, by staying calm and developing a stronger emotional intelligence. Congratulations to our students who have used this strategy successfully this week. We will continue to practice this skill next week too.

Congratulations to Nakeita Bradbury for winning the Simple Pleasures Voting - $100 prize. Vote for your favourite Simple Pleasures photo! Pick up your voting form at the Visitors Centre or the school office. The People’s Choice winner takes home $100 cash, courtesy of the Echo. It might be you! 12 September is the due date.

WHAT’S COMING UP?

It’s Open Mic time again!

This term it will be in week 9 on Thursday 11th of September at lunchtime.

This is a great way for the students at our school to show us what they are interested in and what talent they have. Open Lunchbox Mic is on each Term so if you miss out, you can always get a chance next time. Parents have agreed to come along and watch these performances however it is just for the students’ enjoyment only. It is about the students having a go and building their confidence at performing in front of an audience. Chantelle

WOOL WANTED - Bright Colours

CAPA (Creative and Practical Arts) program students are working on a creative playground project that requires 8 ply wool and crochet hooks size 4 or 5.
